Analysis by the Legislative Reference Bureau

Current law, with some exceptions, prohibits smoking in the state capitol, the immediate vicinity of the state capitol, public conveyances, inpatient health care facilities, indoor movie theaters, offices, and passenger elevators, retail establishments, public waiting rooms, enclosed indoor areas of buildings owned by local or state units of government, motor buses, hospitals, physicians' offices, day care centers, certain secured correctional facilities (and on their grounds), educational facilities that offer state-approved or state-licensed instruction for training, and any restaurant whose seating capacity exceeds 50 persons and whose receipts from the sale of beer or liquor, or both, amount to 50 percent or less of the restaurant's receipts. One of the major exceptions in current law permits smoking in any room in which the main occupant is a smoker. In addition, in some instances, a person in charge of an area in which smoking is prohibited, or his or her agent, may designate smoking areas within the area over which the person has charge.

SENATE BILL 411

This bill prohibits smoking in any building that is owned or leased by this state, with one exception. Under this bill, a person in charge of any building that is owned or leased by this state where individuals reside, other than certain secured correctional facilities, may designate as a smoking area any room within the building that is used primarily as an individual's living quarters, if all individuals who use the room primarily as living quarters consent. A person who violates this bill after being advised that smoking in the area is prohibited must forfeit up to $50, which is the same penalty that currently applies to a person who violates the ban on smoking in the state capitol.
